1. Name on ballot paper

The name to be printed on the ballot paper must be your surname and one or more of your given names (or an initial or a commonly accepted variation).

To ensure fairness between candidates the Returning Officer may rule that a name is inappropriate for inclusion on the ballot paper. If so he or she may ask you to nominate another name or choose one he or she considers appropriate.

2. Disqualification

You are disqualified for membership of the Anindilyakwa Land Council if you:

- (a) have been convicted of an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory (not involving dishonesty) and sentenced to a period of imprisonment of 12 months or more;
or
- (b) have been convicted of an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory involving dishonesty and sentenced to a period of imprisonment of 3 months or more;
or
- (c) have been convicted of 2 or more offences against a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, and were to a period of periods of imprisonment in respect of the offences and are required (or would have been required if the sentence or sentences had not been suspended) to serve a term of imprisonment of 12 months or more;
or
- (d) Convicted of 2 or more offences against a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory involving dishonesty, in sentenced to a period or periods of imprisonment in respect of the offences and is required (or would have been required if the sentence or sentences had not been suspended) to serve a term of imprisonment of 3 months or more.

Your disqualification is for:

- (a) if you served a term of imprisonment – 2 years beginning on the day you were released from prison;
or
- (b) if you did not serve a term of imprisonment – 2 years beginning on the day you were convicted.

3 Eligibility to nominate as councillor

You are eligible to nominate as an Anindilyakwa Land Councilor if you belong to one of the 14 Clans and normally live in the area of the Anindilyakwa Land Council and will be at least 18 years of age at the time you first hold office as an ALC Member.

Your nomination must be received by the Returning Officer before a time and date and to an address published by the Returning Officer. If you send your nomination electronically it is taken to be received at the time the Returning Officer prints it out.

You may send your nomination by post, by fax or by other electronic means so long as it is capable of being printed in its entirety, including signatures. If you send it by fax or electronically you should check that it has been received.

You may withdraw your nomination by giving written notice to the Returning Officer before the closing date for nominations. You may send your withdrawal by post, by fax or by other electronic means so long as it is capable of being printed in its entirety, including signatures.
