About the role

The Art Development Officer sits within the Arts team of the Preserving Culture department who are guided by their mission of Warnumamalya led programs sustaining, sharing and celebrating strong culture.

Reporting to the Art Centre Coordinator (ACC), The Art Development Officer provides support to the Art Centre team with responsibility for developing the creative skills, technical capabilities and output of Anindilyakwa artists and the daily operation of art centres.

This is achieved through proactively participating in planning meetings, working collectively with the entire Art Team and adhering to the direction provided by Art Centre Coordinator. It requires a skilled artist with an enduring passion for the arts and managing projects in the Aboriginal arts space along with the capability to liaise, facilitate and stimulate community driven arts and cultural development.

Key Responsibilities

Program Planning and Delivery

- Work with ACC and Art Centre team to determine the artistic direction for the art centres
- Work with the ACC and Art Centre team to plan the annual artistic program for the art centres.
- Work with the Art Centre team to coordinate the, logistics and implementation of the artistic program; including trips on country, stakeholder programs, workshops and open days etc
- Liaise with the ACC and Art Centre team in the operations and development of new art centre programs and identify new opportunities or directions for art centre calendar

Develop artists

- Support the conceptual and technical artistic skills development of artists and arts workers, including facilitating workshops and one-on-one sessions with artists and arts workers
- Coordinate group activities including facilitating the collection and preparation of materials
- Develop, implement and maintain Training and Development Plans for emerging and established artists
- Build the artistic profiles of emerging and established artists
- Support visiting facilitators as required

Build Art Centre profile

- Build community stakeholder and internal ALC support through strong relationships and supporting mutually beneficial programs
- Actively support the number of community artists engaged with Anindilyakwa Arts to grow, engage with community and increase art centre participation across all art centres and outreach program
- Identify pathways for artists and art workers to stand strongly in both worlds by supporting traditional arts and crafts practices as well as encouraging contemporary expressions of culture
- Develop and maintain external relationships in the Indigenous Arts Industry

Administration

- Support time-management of art creation for specific commission, art awards and/or exhibition etc
- Support the maintenance of the art centre database, accurately record cultural information from artists for each artwork piece and update biographical and program information as required
- Effectively supervise the day-to-day operations, including WHS and administration (timesheets, maintenance, material ordering etc), of the art centres, ensuring resources and program calendar is maintained

Team interaction

- Proactively contribute to team communications, meetings and general morale
- Assisting the gallery team from time to time as required with information
