About the role

The Community Justice Group Administration Officer reports directly and works closely with the Community Justice Coordinator and is responsible for supporting the Community Justice Group. This role encompasses a wide range of responsibilities related to administrative, clerical, and organisational tasks within the justice department. The Administrative Officer ensures that the department's daily operations run smoothly, which is vital for the fair and timely administration of community justice operations. This position offers a blend of office-based work and interaction with community.

Key Responsibilities

- Administration: Administer payments and sitting fees related to Community Justice activities, to ensure peace makers, Elders, and community members are fairly and promptly compensated for their contributions. This is achieved by processing payment authorities for sitting fees, transport assistance, and court-related support in line with ALC procedures.
- Purchasing and Timesheets: Coordinate administrative requirements including timesheets and purchasing requests, to support efficient operations and ensure resources are available to deliver justice activities. This is achieved by collecting and processing timesheets, raising purchase requests, and maintaining accurate administrative records.
- Coordinate Meetings and Record Outcomes: Set up and support Community Justice meetings and forums, to ensure effective communication, governance, and decision-making across justice activities. This is achieved by scheduling meetings for coordinators, reference groups, and community safety forums, taking minutes, and distributing records.
- Coordinate Logistics and Asset Management: Manage logistics related to vehicles, transport, and activity planning, to support safe, reliable access to justice services and community activities. This is achieved by coordinating vehicle bookings and repairs, maintaining records, and supporting activity workplans.
- Support Program Administration and Development: Provide administrative support for the Community Justice Program, to strengthen program quality, accountability, and continuous improvement. This is achieved by maintaining records, supporting program development, preparing correspondence, and assisting with quality reports.
- Teamwork and Stakeholder Relationships: Contribute positively to the Community Justice team and stakeholder relationships, to support collaborative service delivery and uphold ALC and Community Justice values. This is achieved by working productively with the team, ALC colleagues, stakeholders, and community members, and modelling respectful, professional conduct.
